

A Dickens Christmas at Brewers' Hall

Aldermanbury Square, EC2V 7HR

What to Expect

"I will honour Christmas in my heart, and try to keep it all the year..." Charles Dickens Characterful, intimate and undeniably charming, Brewers' Hall exudes a unique blend of tradition, festive warmth and sophistication. Step back into a Victorian era of oil lamps, vintage furnishings, tartan Chesterfields, chandeliers and fireplaces dressed with stockings and garlands. Located on a quiet square in the heart of the City, the Hall combines timeless elegance, in a gracious setting that is enriched with layers of historical charm.

A discreet and graceful marble-floored lobby with a traditional streetlamp post and wreath lead you to a beautiful oak staircase decked with black lanterns and candles, creating the typical lighting of this Dickensian era. The perfect photo opportunity awaits you on the first floor with giant books, Chesterfields, antique rugs and throws. Welcome drinks are served in the Court Room which adjoins the elegant oak panelled Livery Hall, the setting for which your banquet will be served, with three magnificent chandeliers hanging from the decorated ceiling it is the most splendid room for this Dickensian festive affair. The Committee Room, now transformed into Scrooges' office, boasts a traditional bar and is decorated with typewriter, vintage trunks and indeed his wooden rocking chair.

All rooms at Brewers' Hall adjoin and with exclusive hire your party will flow and keep all guests at the heart of the celebration.
